MAY 2024 VOLUME 32 #5

WHAT ARE "ROGATION DAYS?"

Stewardship of creation is an ongoing ministry in the church. The creation, which God declared good, is entrusted to the care of humankind. Exercising that care is one dimension of daily Christian discipleship.

Rogation Days are a way for the church to honor God for the gift of creation and to pray for the land, the gift of labor, and the needs of all people. Rogation Days were traditionally celebrated during the fifty days of Easter on the Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday before Ascension Day. The word, Rogation, has its roots in the Latin word "rogare" which means to ask or petition and it comes from the ancient introit for the Sunday preceding the Ascension. In some places, the celebrations of Rogation Days were quite elaborate and included processions from the church to and around fields while asking for God's blessing.

Churches that have maintained the practice of celebrating Rogation Days in our time now no longer mark these days specifically before Ascension. Instead, Rogation Days are celebrated at times and places that meet local needs. With an increased awareness of the need for the stewardship of creation both within the church and within contemporary culture, the themes of thanksgiving for the land and petitions for a fruitful earth may be adapted around broader cultural celebrations of Earth Day or at other times.

Although Rogation Days are agricultural celebrations, they are not solely for rural congregations. These days underscore the dependence of all people, urban and rural, on the fruitfulness of the earth and human labor. The themes of Rogation Days may be highlighted in a special worship service or in prayers of intercession in the Sunday assembly during the spring.

From What Are "Rogation Days" (elca.org)

from the PASTOR

The "Merry Month of May" presents us with several opportunities for celebration and remembrance, both in our general community life and our faith-community life as well.

May Day, May 1, is half-remembered by older folks as the first spring flower festival. May poles, dancing, a "spring is in the air" frivolity ushers in the first really pleasant month of the summer season. May Day continues to be an important celebration in parts of Europe but is largely forgotten here.

When I think of the more "secular" May holidays I think of Mother's Day and Memorial Day. While neither one finds an official place in the church's liturgical calendar, both are opportunities to give thanks to God for very specific and important people. Our mother's, both those who are living and those who now live with God, helped shape us into who we are. Without their love and support our lives would be entirely different. Jesus brings to mind a mother hen as a powerful image for the protective love of God; "How often would I have gathered your children together, like the hen gathers her nest under her wings!" Luke 13:14. On Memorial Day we remember those who died in service to their country. (Unlike Veteran's Day, which remembers all who served). We express our profound thanks to God for their sacrifice and the sacrifice made by their families even as we pledge to always remember their lives.

There are really three important church festivals that fall this year during May: Ascension, Pentecost, and Trinity Sunday. Ascension is always on the sixth Thursday after Easter because scripture tells us Jesus ascended into heaven 40 days after he rose from the dead. Not many churches hold Ascension worship on Thursdays, which I think is a bit of a shame. Pentecost occurs on the eighth Sunday after Easter because that's 50 days after Jesus rose from the dead and the day the Holy Spirit descended upon the disciples creating the Church. Pentecost begins the great missionary journey of the Church taking the Good News of Jesus into all the world. Finally, Holy Trinity Sunday always falls on the Sunday after Pentecost. It's the only church festival that doesn't celebrate an event in the life of Jesus. Rather it celebrates the great article of Christian faith, that the One God is known to us in Three Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

I like the connection between the words "holidays" and "holy days." As you might guess, they come from the same source. While we are accustomed to dividing the world up into the sacred and secular, I don't always find those distinctions helpful. If all of life is permeated and filled with the love of God then those lines of separation are often blurred. Celebrations of spring, and thankfulness for mothers (and all who exercise a mothering love) and thankfulness for those who sacrificed their lives, whether in the military or in some other type of service, are intertwined with the Lord who rules from his heavenly throne and whose Holy Spirit gives life, not only to the Church, but to the whole world.

May is a wonderful month to remind us that God presence fills all of life: in creation, in our families, in our nation, in the Church. Thanks be to God!

In Christ, — PASTOR KURT STRAUSE

THE NEGLECTED FESTIVAL

By Ross L. Worch

Let's prepare for Pentecost.

We all know the major festivals of our church, right? Christmas and Easter. They are the two major festivals of the ELCA. But not so fast. What about the neglected major festival? What about Pentecost?

Christmas and Easter are huge celebrations for at least two reasons:

- The biblical stories that are the foundations of these festivals (i.e., the birth of baby Jesus, the Savior of the world, and the resurrection from the dead of that same Jesus) are momentous.
- These religious festivals have been "picked up" or commercialized, if you will, by the secular world.

But not "poor, old" Pentecost.

No Pentecost carols exist. No Pentecost shopping. No Pentecost candies. No trees, lights, gifts, baskets, eggs or bunnies. We don't have Pentecost sunrise services. Pentecost suffers from an inferiority complex. It's most often neglected.

We prepare for Christmas, the birth of the Christ child, by having four Sundays in Advent. We prepare for the celebration of Jesus' resurrection with special Ash Wednesday services and then 40 days of Lent followed by Holy Week. What preparation do we have for Pentecost? How do we make our parishioners ready for the coming of the Spirit? In most cases the answers to those questions are: "We have no specific preparations" and "We don't make them ready for the coming of the Spirit."

Why not? Why can't we? Why don't we? Back in 2001 I started something new before Pentecost. The congregation I served gave Pentecost a "warm-up week" similar to Advent and Lent. We designated the Sunday before Pentecost as "PrePent" Sunday. Red is the color for that season—much like having poinsettias at Christmas and lilies at Easter—so we had red geraniums at Pentecost. We made every effort to make this pre-Pentecost season very special. We didn't (and still don't) want Pentecost to continue to get short shrift on our festival calendar.

I wrote the above words for an article that appeared in The Lutheran in June 2001. It seems that Pentecost is still not celebrated like Christmas and Easter, so maybe my words are still relevant.

Therefore, I again raise my call to make our church one that can say, "We have three major festivals, and we celebrate all three!" Amen.

RITE OF CONFIRMATION

At the 10:00 am liturgy on Sunday, May 19, 2024, a young confirmand will affirm his baptism with the Rite of Confirmation. Anthony Quinones has been preparing by studying important themes and issues of our faith for four years. We celebrate with Anthony, his family and sponsors that he has successfully completed his study and grown into a new phase of life as a disciple of Jesus Christ.

BIBLE STORIES PROJECT

The May Bible Stories Project stories are "The Ascension" and "The Holy Spirit." The disciples saw Jesus ascend, or go up to Heaven. It was more proof that Jesus is the son of God. We received the gift of the Holy Spirit to help us share God's love with others and to guide our lives. We can't physically see the Holy Spirit, but like the wind we can't see, we know the Holy Spirit is with us.

These stories can be found in the Spark Bible pages 498-499; 502-503, or in Luke 24:50-53; Acts 1:6-14; Acts 2:1-21, 36-42.

Bible Stories Project postcards are available on the Bible Stories Board. Send one to a friend or family member, or take one for yourself.

GOOD SHEPHERD FAMILY FUN

Good Shepherd Family Fun is an intergenerational event for all ages that combines learning, engaging, and enjoying time together. Mark your calendar and plan to join us for these upcoming events.

Wednesday, May 8, from 6:30 – 7:30 PM

How Sweet It Is – Cupcake Edition! Tammy Ziegler has been baking and decorating beautiful and delicious cupcakes for years. She will share tips on how to get the most out of a cake mix and help us tint the frosting and decorate them too!

Wednesday, June 26, from 6:30 – 7:30 PM

BINGO Night is back! We will do traditional and unique games of Bingo. All ages and experience levels are welcome. Participants can play as many cards as they would like per game! All materials are provided. Friends are welcome too. Get ready to BINGO at LCGS!

We are always looking for LCGS members to share talents, interests, hobbies, activities, or experiences. Do you have something that you would be willing to share at Good Shepherd Family Fun? Share any thoughts with Judy Lefever at jrlfever@gmail.com or 717-397-4884 or Kelly Lowery at 814-327-5444 or kellyoverlowery@gmail.com.

WE HAVE A PROPERTY CHAIRPERSON!!

Thank you Ed White for volunteering to chair our Property Committee. Ed is actually returning as Chairperson. Ed served on the committee for many years. His return gives us not only his skills, but also his experience in the functioning of the building and grounds. Ed is leading a crew of 4 other individuals. Some of this group are "on call" for specialized tasks and that is totally acceptable. If you have a specialized skill, please consider working with the people who keep us running. Thanks to Rod Schoening for his hard work and dedication leading the committee through very difficult times during Covid. He has agreed to be available for some of the specialized needs we may incur. If you are interested in any committee (the Discipleship Brochure is available for ideas and needs), complete the form from the brochure or speak to any Council member.

FROM THE TOWARDS RACIAL JUSTICE GROUP

Where do you go to read a good book? Whether it's on your back porch, the beach, the library, or a cozy room in your house, you are undoubtedly looking for your next good read!

You're in luck! The Towards Racial Justice small group has stocked the library in the Shepherd's Crook Cafe with dozens of current reads meant to help us to understand everyday racism, privilege, and implicit bias. You'll find books by New York Times bestselling authors Ibram X. Kendi, Emmanuel Acho, Bryan Stevenson, Robin Diangelo, and more.

Our hope is that you'll discover a topic or book that intrigues you and helps you learn why justice ministries are so necessary - even 50 years after civil rights laws were passed. We only ask that you return them when you're finished.

The Towards Racial Justice Small Group meets on the 2nd Tuesday and the 4th Monday of each month via Zoom for action planning and learning.

Visit our webpage for more information and to gain access to the Zoom link:
<http://goodshepherdlancaster.org/racialjustice>

Will you pray with us?

Good and gracious God, you invite us to recognize and reverence your divine image and likeness in our neighbor. Enable us to see the reality of racism and free us to challenge and uproot it from our society, our world and ourselves. This we pray in Jesus' name. Amen.

PARISH NOTES

BUSHEL OF LOVE Help to feed local residents by contributing food on the third Sunday of each month. All non-perishable food is appreciated as are monetary donations. Place your food items in the baskets in the narthex.

ENDOWMENT FUND Good Shepherd has an endowment fund to enable gifts that continue to support ministries over time — gifts that keep on giving. Pick up an Endowment brochure and call Bob Walton, chair, for more information. Any size gift is welcome and important.

HELPING HANDS MINISTRY Helping Hands Ministry provides meals to a person or household in a time of need. If you are in need of a meal, or would like to help, contact Katie Smith HOSPITAL ADMISSIONS If you or someone you know from the congregation is admitted to a local hospital, please contact the pastor or the church office immediately. We cannot depend on the hospitals to notify us in all cases. At present, only LGH releases information.

LIVESTREAM Our Sunday in-person service is livestreamed each week beginning at 10:00 am on Sunday, or at any time thereafter on our website and YouTube channel. The online option will be available when you first visit our website, or go to live.GoodShepherdLancaster.org View past services here: GoodShepherdLancaster.org/servicearchive

CALLING ALL GRADUATES!

We congratulate all who are graduating from high school, college, or technical school this spring. You know who you are, but we may not! In order to celebrate your accomplishments, please contact the church office and provide information regarding your graduation. We would like to know the school from which you graduated, any specifics (e.g. major) and your plans for the future. A list of graduates will be published in the August issue of Good News.

HOLY EUCHARIST: WITH THE SAINTS

Wednesdays in Summer • 6:00 pm

Join us outside in Good Shepherd's Memorial Garden for a time of prayer, scripture and the Eucharist. This brief service is celebrated among the saints (those who've gone before us) in quiet reverence and remembrance.

May 29 + June 5, 12, 19, 26 + July 3, 10, 17, 24, 31 + August 7, 14, 21, 28

In case of inclement weather, the service will be held in the nave.

FINANCE COMMITTEE Q1 FINANCIAL SUMMARY

Q1 Income v. Expense	Q1 2023	Q1 2024
January - March Giving Total	$123,611.97	$134,404.51
January - March Expenses	$133,002.97	$100,924.30
Total Income Less Total Expenses	$ (9,391.00)	$ 33,480.21

- a. January-March income versus expenses is positive, but we shouldn't have a false sense of security at this moment. The congregation responded to the need with some one-time gifts that helped give us a strong start to 2024. We'll need to watch upcoming months/weeks closely and continue to communicate our financial condition.
- b. Balance sheet through Q1 2024 shows a deficit of -$70,745. This is similar to the congregation's position in Nov. 2023 - finances are stable now, but we've not made significant headway on negative General Operation Fund Balance.

EXPENSE REDUCTION ACTIONS:

1. Mortgage Modification: Our current outstanding mortgage balance is $302,467.66 and monthly payment is $6,348.00. Our lender, Mission Investment Fund, has agreed to reduced payments for a six-month period detailed below:
 - I. April 1 -- June 1 our payment is $3,500
 - II. July 1 -- Sept 1 our payment is $5, 000
 - III. Return to norma payment of $6,348 on Oct 1
 - IV.Total savings from modified payment is $12,588
2. Pledge Adjustment: The annual pledges to the following organizations were adjusted down 25% - Synod, Luthercare, World Hunger Appeal, Contact, Samaritan Center, Lafayette Fire Co., Camping Corporation, United Seminary. Additionally, the congregation will only send what is collected for the World Hunger Appeal and Lancaster Co. Food Hub moving forward. These actions represent a $23,950 reduction v. 2024 spending plan.

WHAT'S NEEDED FROM THE CONGREGATION:

While the Finance Committee will continue to analyze expenses and suggest actions for the Congregation's Council Members, we still need increased individual giving to shore up finances. The summer months will be a particular concern as we typically experience a decrease in giving.

Focus on this matter is important to the future. As the Call Committee is building our congregation's profile to attract candidates, the financial condition of Good Shepherd will be an important topic. We need everyone's help and focus to solve this situation and build a strong financial foundation with a new pastor in mind.

Planning a meeting, activity, or event? Put it on the LCGS calendar! If you plan ANY LCGS meeting, activity, or event, please make sure it is included on the church calendar. Use <https://events.goodshepherdlanaster.org> to make this quick and easy.

SENIOR SHEPHERDS

The best laid plans of Senior Shepherds Presidents sometimes go astray. For the second month in a row we had to adjust during the game. Due to some medical issues, I was unable to attend the meeting. A lot of pressure came to our Secretary, Linda Stuver and our church Secretary, Kathy Tropp, because this was our return to the Church for our meetings.

The April meeting featured Beth Oberholtzer and her talk on her book “Amish Gardens.” Beth grew up on a Lancaster farm where the "Kitchen" gardens are used to feed their families and provide an artistic buffer to the world. The return to Potluck Lunch provided lots of fun, food, and festivities.

Our May 21 meeting in All Saints will start at 11:30 am and will feature our friend and patriotic singer, Kerry White! He's been with us before and we know his love of American history (retired teacher) and music! He comes to us all the way from Wrightsville!

The 2024 Schedule is posted on the Senior Shepherd Bulletin Board! Lots of Entertainment and fun for all ages! Come out and join us when you can! We do not discriminate if you are underage, we'll serve you anyhow!

Love one another.

ADULT ED: POWER INTERFAITH LANCASTER EDUCATION FUNDING—A MATTER OF STEWARDSHIP

The Towards Racial Justice Small Group will welcome Beth Reeves, chair of the Education Committee of POWER Interfaith Lancaster as our presenter for Adult Education on May 12, at 11:15 am in the Good Shepherd Room.

We are entering the season for action in a long-standing effort to change the way that Pennsylvania funds schools for poor and Black and Brown children. There's lots of work to do, and this year, it actually seems that what we do will make a difference!

Here's why this work is important: Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court recognized the educational benefit of increased resources when they ruled that Pennsylvania schools were unconstitutionally underfunding poor school districts. In response, Pennsylvania's Basic Education Funding Commission has just released a report recommending how to close the gap between rich and poor school districts. For the first time, school funding would be based on what students need, rather than local wealth.

Please plan to join us for this engaging and important learning opportunity!

CREATION CARE BOOK CLUB

THE SECRET IS OUT!

OUR NEXT BOOK CLUB SELECTION
IS “THE END OF EDEN” BY ADAM WELZ.

The Creation Care Team meets twice a month on the second and fourth Saturday of each month. The fourth Saturday meeting of each month is devoted to book club discussions. Join us as we read and discuss “The End of Eden.”

The Creation Care Team meets at Good Shepherd in the Café the second and fourth Saturdays of each month at 9:00 am. Meetings usually end at 10:30.

FEEDING MINISTRY NEWS

On Tuesday April 16th, from 9:00 -11:00, the Good Shepherd Packers packed 67 boxed meals, separated and packed 787 bags of spinach, and sorted over 800 meal boxes to be distributed to Lancaster and York County schools. It's wonderful to be able to help the Power Pack Project nonprofit operating right here in Greenfield. Our next packing date will be Monday, June 24th from 9:00 am to 11:00 am. Watch the Feeding Ministry board for the sign up sheet.

THE COMMUNITY MEAL AT GRACE

The third Wednesday of each month, Good Shepherd cooks and serves a meal to anyone in the Lancaster community who may need or wish to participate. The next Grace Meal is on Wednesday, May 15, at 5:30 pm. If you can help serve, please contact Denise White at 717-626-5590.

HELP!!! IS NEEDED IN THE CHURCH GARDENS

Good Shepherd’s gardens need your help in keeping the weeds in check, especially the Pitney Road side of the church and the Hosta Garden in the back of the church (near the play area and new Rain Garden.) Join Helen on Wednesday mornings, to weed as needed and learn what is a weed, and what is not. No special skills needed, just the ability to crouch or crawl around on the ground. Any questions, or if you want a more in-depth discussion, contact Helen Book, at cwbhb@comcast.net or 717-272-0903.

THE PROBLEM (AND POWER) OF MONEY

[Jesus told the rich man] “You lack one thing; go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.” When he heard this, he was shocked and went away grieving, for he had many possessions. [Jesus taught the disciples,] “It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.” – Mark 10:21b-22, 25

Wealth poses spiritual risks. Jesus teaches that money has the power to turn us inward – away from loving God with all our heart and loving our neighbor as ourselves. It confuses our values and direction. That was the issue with the rich man in Mark 10:17-27. Deeply religious, he nonetheless worries about eternal life. The “one thing” he lacks, Jesus tells him, can be satisfied by selling what he has and giving to the poor. Generous giving would break the bond that money has over him and help re-center him on loving God and loving neighbor.

Generosity is the spiritual prescription Jesus gives the rich man, and it’s the one for us, too.
