

Lancaster British Brass Band

SUNDAY, JUNE 13, 2027 AT 4:00 PM

Celebrating their 23rd season, the Lancaster British Brass Band and conductor, Dr. Tina DiMeglio, continue to “wow” audiences wherever they perform. Next June we are again in for a treat.

This popular ensemble follows the path first laid down in the smoky mill and mining towns of mid-nineteenth century Britain. Gradually evolving into a fixed instrumentation of 30 players (and 1 conductor), the brass band flourished under the sponsorship of mill and mine owners bent on “moral and spiritual uplift,” thus laying the ground-work for a later time when the Salvation Army began capitalizing on the success of the bands by establishing brass bands as part of their outreach through music.

The varied selections of the Lancaster British Brass Band are sure to please a wide range of tastes and interests. A typical program consists of transcriptions of the classics, marches, hymns, popular music arrangements, solos and, last but not least, original compositions written for the medium.

Their unique sound, being composed entirely of brass winds and percussion instruments, has been compared to “one big, magnificent pipe organ.” COME AND EXPERIENCE IT FOR YOURSELF by joining us for this extraordinary FREE afternoon!

Rizzetta's Tones

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 2026 AT 4:00 PM

Join us for this FREE "musical journey across the pond" as we begin our 2026-27 concert series by welcoming Rizzetta's Tones.

This Celtic Americana band is comprised of two hammer dulcimers, silver flute, high and low whistles, guitar, plus alto and bass melodions. They often spice up their sound with button accordion, Greek bouzouki, mandolin, autoharp, ukulele, as well as bodhran, djembe, and other percussion instruments and perform with around 15+ instruments on stage.

All band members, Randy Kochel, Linda Lohr, Bill Stine and Amanda Wells, sing lead and backing vocals on various songs, both poignant and humorous. They've been together as a band for around 10 years with a repertoire including music from Ireland, Scotland, and the USA, drawing as well from the traditions of many other lands.

Forging new arrangements and writing their own material, they present audiences with a pleasing twist while respecting musical traditions. Come and experience a bit of the "old country" during this fun and enlightening afternoon.
